ERISA and Employee Benefits Litigation

Bailey & Glasser represents participants in traditional pension plans, 401(k) salary deferral plans, savings plans, Employee Stock Ownership Plans (ESOPs) and health and disability plans. Bailey & Glasser attorneys have extensive ERISA experience, including trial and appellate, having served as class counsel for plaintiffs in cases that have recovered tens of millions of dollars for participants, including In re CMS Energy ERISA Litigation, 02-CV-72834 (E.D. Mich.) ($28 million recovered), Sherrill v. Federal-Mogul Corp. Retirement Programs Committee, 04-CV-72949 (E.D. Mich.) ($14 million recovered), and In re National City Corp. Securities, Derivative & ERISA Litig., 08-07000 (N.D. Oh.) ($42.5 million recovered). Most recently, Bailey & Glasser served as co-lead counsel on behalf of a class of participants in the Wells Fargo & Co. 401(k) Plan, recovering $17.5 million in 2011. Figas v. Wells Fargo, 08-04546 (D. Minn.)

Bailey & Glasser brings a unique perspective to representing employees in ERISA class actions because its principal ERISA attorney represented defendants in several of the earliest cases involving imprudent investments in plan sponsor stock, including Koch v. Dwyer, No. 98-CV-5519 (S.D.N.Y.); Tittle v. Enron, No. 01-CV-3913 (S.D. Tex.); Rankin v. Rots, No. 02-CV-71045 (E.D. Mich.); and Blyler v. Agee, No. CV 97-332 (D. Id.)

Bailey & Glasser currently represents employees in several complex ERISA class actions against banks alleging imprudent investments in proprietary mutual funds. Bailey & Glasser also is pursuing claims on behalf of multiple retirement plans against large custodial banks for improper fees and imprudent investments in connection with securities lending and foreign currency trades.
